Vienna, Oct. 28. By Letters of the 20th Inſtant from the Camp before Temeſwaer, we have an Account, That the Capitulation made with the Turks had been juſtly and honourably performed; as many of the ſaid Inhabitants as choſe to go out with the Garriſon, being allowed ſo to do, with their Families, and to ſell or take with them their Effects. They began to march out on the 17th, to be conducted by a Guard of 500 Horſe, the ſhorteſt Way to Belgrade in eight Days. On the 18th Prince Eugene, being accompanied by all the General Officess, cauſed Te Deum to be ſung in his Tent, in Thankſgiving for the taking of this important Place; on which Occaſion a Diſcharge was made of 140 Pieces of Cannon. In the Place were found large Storrs of Powder and other Ammunition, and of Corn, as alſo 136 Pieces of Cannon and 10 Mortars. The Jews and Raſſians who were ſettled in the Town, choſe to remain there. Count Wallis is made Governour of Temeſwaer, and a Garriſon of ſix Batallions, with a Number of Horſe, is put into it. Letters from Buda of the 24th adviſe, that the Count de Regal, Governour of that Place, was come thither from Temeſwaer, as was alſo Count Heiſter; that a Convoy of Proviſions ſent to the Camp from Buda, had received Counter-Orders on the Way from Prince Eugene, and was returning thither; and that a Bridge was making over the Danube near Fedvar, which would be ready in a few Days.

Copenhagen, Oct. 31. The King of Denmark, who had been indiſpoſed ſeveral Days, is recovered, and appeared in publick on the 29th Inſtant. The Czar, at his Departure from hence, left Directions with the Undertakers of Proviſions for the Ruſſian Troops to fill the Magazines for the enſuing Campaign; and 'tis expected his Czariſh Majeſty will return hither in May next, with his Troops. On the 28th and 29th ſeveral Tranſport Ships came back from Mecklenbourg, where they landed the Ruſſian Troops: The Czar's Gallies had been ſeparated in bad Weather, Part of them being driven towards Dantzick, and the reſt towards Lubeck. On the 29th the Squadron of Britiſh Men of War lay near Stevens, and the Daniſh Fleet near Dornbuſch, to ſecure the Trade in their Return from Dantzick. The Troops which were encamped in the Neighbourhood of this City, are almoſt all marched to their ſeveral Winter Quarters.

Berlin, Nov. 3. Letters from Warſaw of the 27th of laſt Month relate, that the Amneſty on both ſides, after very warm Debates about the Satisfaction mutually pretended for their Grievances, was agreed on that Day, and would be ſigned in Form on the 29th. Six Regiments of Muſcovite Dragoons are on their March towards Poland, but they firſt demanded demanded a Week's Subſiſtance from the Country of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, and as much Forrage and Proviſions as will ſerve them through the King of Pruſſia's Dominions: As to their Infantry, nothing will be determined before the Czar arrives at Schwerin. The King of Pruſſia is ſtill at Potſdam, and the Time of his Return hither uncertain. Letters from Dantzick of the 31ſt paſt, ſay the Britiſh and Dutch Fleet of Merchant-Men, were fully aſſembled in that Road; and, Weather permitting, deſigned to ſail for the Sound on the 2d Inſtant.

Paris, Nov. 10. All the Iriſh Troops in the Service of this Crown, are ordered to be broken, and incorporated into French Regiments. Orders are alſo given for a Reform of 17 Battallions, and five Men of every Troop of Horſe. The Regent has appointed the Abbot Fleury to be the King's Confeſſour. The Dutcheſs of Bourbon is fallen ill of the Small Pox.

Bruſſels, Nov. 11. Sunday laſt being a Day of Thankſgiving for the taking of Temeſwaer, and the other Succeſſes of the Imperial Arms againſt the Turks during this Campaign, the Te Deum was ſolemnly ſung in the Cathedral Church of this Town, under a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon, and of the ſmall Arms of the Garriſon. Count Kinigſegg, the Imperial Miniſter, being indiſpoſed, did not aſſiſt at the Ceremony. The Cannon were again fired in the Evening, and the Night ended with Illuminations, Ringing of Bells, and other Demonſtrations of Joy. The Biſhop of Antwerp and M. Van den Broeck, Greffier of the States of Brabant, who were deputed by that Province to repreſent their pretended Grievances to the Marqueſs de Prié, are returned from the Hague: They report that at their Departure from thence, the Difficulties concerning the Execution of ſome Articles of the Barrier-Treaty, were in a good Way of being accommodated to the Satisfaction of both Parties.
